5 Steps to Becoming a More Confident IEP Parent

IEP Empowered: From Overwhelmed to Prepared

Tuesday, September 29th at 630pm via ZOOM

IEPs can feel overwhelming—but you don't have to navigate them alone. Join us for an empowering, practical workshop designed to help parents of students in Kindergarten through 10th grade feel more confident and prepared for the IEP process.

We'll break down the IEP process, talk about what parents should know and ask for, and share practical strategies for becoming a stronger advocate for your child. You'll also be introduced to Undivided and the IEP Assistant, an innovative tool designed to help families better understand their child's IEP, prepare for meetings, organize information, and advocate with greater confidence.

Whether you're new to the IEP process or have been attending meetings for years, you'll leave with helpful resources, practical tools, and a renewed sense of confidence for your next IEP meeting.

Come learn. Come ask questions. Come leave feeling empowered.
